

Agapetus fuscipes

Trichoptera (Caddisflies)

Agapetus larvae build tortoise-like cases out of tiny stones. They carry these cases around with them as they crawl around the stream bed. Larvae are very intolerant to nutrient pollution. They eat algae off rocks and some adults can feed on nectar.

Size 3-9mm..... 03

Feeding Habits 07

Party Tricks 08

Water Quality Score 10